Since 1972 Mark Edwards
has specialised in photographing
environment and
Third World development issues. His reputation as one of the world's foremost photographers in this area has been recognised by the United Nations; in 1990 he became the first photographer to be named to the prestigious Global 500 Award listing. He founded Still Pictures in 1987 which now holds the work of 20 top international specialist photographers and is one of the few agencies in the world which is able to illustrate all the issues relevant to Agenda 21.

Severn Valley Press
Publisher's Note
Printed on Sylvancoat
mattecoated recycled paper which is made from 90 per cent recycled paper comprising de-inked waste and clean white waste. No chlorine based bleaches are used. Sylvancoat is produced in the UK for Paperback Ltd.
Premier Holland B.V. inks used in the printing process are water insoluble and use harmless pigments which are bonded with resins based on vegetable sources. The cover is laminated with Clarifoil cellulose diacetate film manufactured primarily from wood pulp sourced only from managed forestry.
When used with suitable adhesives it assists recycling by helping to de-ink the board without the need for chemical treatments.

The IIED is a policy research institute seeking ways by which humanity can make economic progress without destroying the environmental resource base. The majority of IIED's work is done in the developing world for the benefit of the poor. IIED services are designed to deliver to donors and governments a range of expertise and experience in all stages of the project cycle from conception to post-project evaluation. Wherever it operates IIED sets out to work with local institutions and expertise. IIED is a charitable, non-profit making institution. It is funded by international organisations, governments, private and corporate foundations and concerned individuals.
