

Contents

Introduction 7
His Excellency Boutros Boutros-Ghali,
Secretary-General of the United Nations

Foreword 9
Sadako Ogata
United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees

Editor's viewpoint 10
Richard Reoch

SECTION 1

The Key Issues 21

A question of principle 23
Thomas Hammarberg

An equal voice 27
Charlotte Bunch

New development agenda 32
Patricia Feeney

Fundamental freedoms 38
Pierre Sané

Defending the future 43
Shulamith Koenig

Raising awareness 49
Roberto Savio

Partnership in action 53
Pauline Comeau

Contest in Vienna 57
Kumudini Samuel

SECTION 2

Politics, Society and Human Rights 63

A solidarity pact 64
Jean Mayer

The peace paradox 68
Andrew Clapham

A horrendous toll 71
International Alert

Crisis of civilization 77
Terra Femina

Woman's voice 79
The Global Campaign for Women's
Human Rights

The next generation 80
Sleepy Eye La Framboise

Squandered opportunities 80
United Nations Children's Fund

Undefined and unprotected 85
NGOs for the rights of the elderly

Issues for the 1990s 86
United Nations Population Fund

Critical participation 89
International Year of the World's Indigenous People

Human rights defenders 91
Michael H. Posner

African viewpoint 97
Makau Mutua

The social framework: an Arab view 100
Arab non-governmental organizations

A European perspective 103
Catherine Lalumière

SECTION 3

Development, Business and Human Rights 109

Denial and neglect 111
Philip Alston

The poverty process 117
International Fund for Agricultural Development

Linking rights and development 119
Lawyers Committee for Human Rights

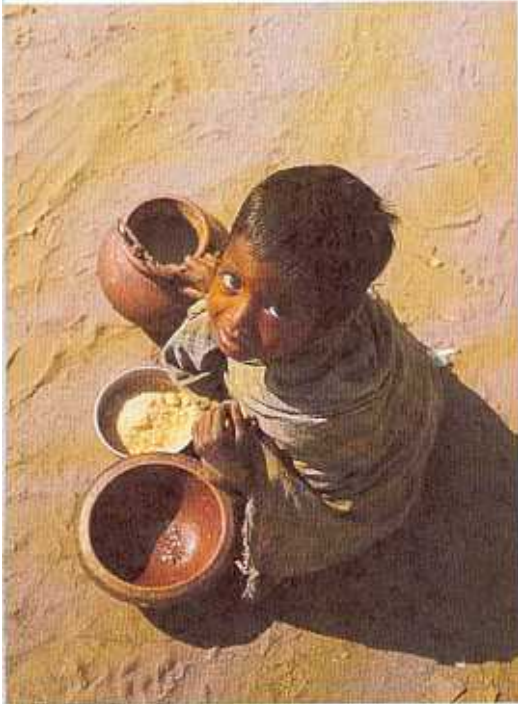

Human centred development 122
Maurice Williams

Ethical standards 127
Ryuzaburo Kaku

An Agenda 21 for human rights 131
Paulo Sérgio Pinheiro

Balancing the environment 135
Anand Panyarachun

Contents

A South Asian perspective 139
Neelan Tiruchelvam

Growth with equity 143
Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean

Rights at work 145
International Confederation of Free Trade Unions

The power of business 149
Tim Smith

Human rights and investment 153
Clifton Sorrell Jr

Change in the wind 157
Robert Adams

An instrument for change 161
Walter Hoadley

The Minnesota Principles 165

SECTION 4

The Debate Unfolds 167

Fall's last-ditch attempt to save draft pact
Albertina Sisulu call for action
If times were right
NGOs rebuff UN rights conference
Indigenous people plead for attention and sensitivity
Arab NGOs in agreement on women's rights
NGOs face exclusion from crucial drafting committee
The curtain goes up
Funds needed for the UN's human rights crusade
End genocide in Bosnia
Rights are universal and indivisible
Message addressed to the World Conference on Human Rights by the Nobel Peace Prize Laureates
A world court for ethnic disputes
Fact-finding under siege
The great media divide
Drafters to burn midnight oil
The right to life
A glass half full or half empty?
Women's zeal unmatched in Vienna
In search of a new development strategy
Probing rights violations
Conference votes on Bosnia
The silent shoes of Bosnia
Asylum under siege in Europe
NGOs make plans beyond Vienna

SECTION 5

The Vienna Declaration 191

The Vienna Declaration and Programme of Action 193

SECTION 6

NGO Final Forum 229

NGO Forum Final Report 230

SECTION 7

The High Commissioner for Human Rights 253

UN High Commissioner for Human Rights 254

Facing up to failures 257
Amnesty International

SECTION 8

Treaties and Declarations 263

Universal Declaration of Human Rights 265

International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights 267

Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights 278

Second Optional Protocol to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights aiming at the abolition of the death penalty 281

International Covenant on Economic,
Social and Cultural Rights 283

Tunis Declaration 288

San José Declaration 289

Bangkok Declaration 293

Declaration on the Right to Development 297

Glossary 303